SUBJECT: Fiscal Year (FY) 2006 Fuel Price Change

The continued volatility of world fuel prices, and the resulting impact on the Defense Logistics Agency, Defense-Wide Working Capital Fund, necessitate a fuel price increase in order to ensure the continued solvency of the Defense-Wide Working Capital Fund.

The FY 2006 fuel standard price is increased to $106.26 per barrel, to be effective June 1, 2006. The attachment provides a breakdown of the new fuel prices by fuel type.

The customer impact of this action will be reviewed during the FY 2006 Mid-Year Review.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John P. Roth", is positioned above the name and title.

John P. Roth
Deputy Comptroller
